

Draconian Profiles

DRACONIANS

During the 22nd Century Earth and Draconia are the two main empires in the Galaxy. The people of the two empires are very much alike in the make up of their personalities and outlook. Yet the two distrust each other greatly and wars between the two have been both frequent and fierce. Draconia is ruled by a hereditary emperor, who spends much of his time debating policies and government with the heads of the powerful Draconian noble families. The Emperor constantly strives to forge a lasting peace with his galactic neighbor; Earth.

ORGANISATION AND COMMAND

The Draconian Army is well established and very well organized, with a strict command and control structure. On a detachment level, units of Draconian Soldiers are led by a commander who has a role similar to a human sergeant. In the absence of a commander Draconian soldiers are quite capable of going into action on their own.
